

Cultural Pedagogies and Human Conduct (Hardback)

By Megan Watkins, Greg Noble, Catherine Driscoll

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 241 x 163 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Pedagogy is often glossed as the art and science of teaching but this focus typically ties it to the instructional practices of formalised schooling. Like the emerging work on public pedagogies , the notion of cultural pedagogies signals the importance of the pedagogic in realms other than institutionalised education, but goes beyond the notion of public pedagogies in two ways: it includes spaces which are not so public, and it includes an emphasis on material and non-human actors. This collection foregrounds this broader understanding of pedagogy by framing enquiry through a series of questions and across a range of settings. How, for example, are the processes of teaching and learning realised within and across the pedagogic processes specific to various social sites? What ensembles of people, things and practices are brought together in specific institutional and everyday settings to accomplish these processes? This collection brings together researchers whose work across the interdisciplinary nexus of cultural studies, sociology, media studies, education and museology offers significant insights into these cultural pedagogies - the practices and relations through which cumulative changes in how...
