EVEN DEATH Devoted twin Keith Sheffield spent his life outrunning his demons to find his sister, who has been believed dead since 1970. Hes never wavered from his beliefs; according to him, shes alive, somewhere, out there in the world. An unknown child occupies a grave in Whangarei, New Zealand. Since his first spontaneous astral trip the day of her funeral, hes stayed by her side - her unseen protector since. Ironically, he cant be with her in the physical realm. He does not know her name or whereabouts but refuses to give up. Has the rock stars wild lifestyle shattered his brain Has his obsession blurred the fine line between fantasy and reality Is he stuck in some twisted version of neither Could he be mentally ill Perhaps the vast landscape of his grief and his unhealthy lifestyle choices have hurled him through the proverbial rabbit hole that even he has no idea hes fallen into. On 21 November 2000, the dawning of a new millennium parallels a turning point. In the midst of a televised performance, he is ripped from his earthly shell by a maverick bolt of lightning that nearly kills his sister. Despite the excruciating, mind-bending agony torturing him for hours on end, her devoted, spectral saviour stays by her side, maintaining her life force on this side of the veil with everything hes got. While there, he acquires one simple but important clue to her identity - and possibly her location. Thrilled beyond comprehension, he exits as soon as hes sure shes safe once more. In August 2005 he contacts her at last, and...
