REMAINS (HARDBACK)

McSweeney s Publishing, United States, 2016. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 190 x 168 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Jesus Castillo has created a sprawling contemporary epic that channels the mighty voices of the past (Ovid, Sappho) into a plainspoken song of our times. In a deft, generous style, Castillo takes hold of the stuff of our everyday lives and converts it into modern manna. The book is lovingly relentless, quietly piercing. It is a terrifyingly recognizable call: it is filled with all of our voices, our panic, our modern love, our screens, our roommate s cough, our melting icebergs, our planes and malls and frailties. Castillo writes, This is a test. A set of margins created for company. For waiting in train stations or asking a stranger the time. You re allowed to freak out this much only. There s a green car parked outside, by the curb, near the bike racks. An old man is asking people to put change in his plastic cup, and I remember my name contains both my father s and grandfather s stories. The table I m sitting at is made of steel and marble. It s cold and it s spring. In the song on the radio, a noise.
