Reviews

It is great and fantastic. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. It has been written in an extremely simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this e-book where it actually changed me, affected the way I really believe.

THE REPRESENTATION OF WOMEN IN ENGLISH LITERATURE

2015. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 173 About the book:- Representation of women in English literature, as a subject, has a multiple shade because such a topic involves not only the politics of women empowerment and subjugation but also the politics of literary representation itself. Beside this, the topic has an astonishingly wide range considering the wide spectrum of English literature. The present volume engages a number of renowned and aspiring scholars to explore the various modes of representation of women in English literature, with special emphasis on the key literary figures and texts such as Jane Austen and Virginia Woolf. Never pretending to be exhaustive and conclusive, the book claims to posit itself as a suitable introduction to this subject and will be happy to address the needs of students, teachers and scholars in furthering their scholarly pursuit. About The Author:- Sutanu Kumar Mahapatra teaches English at Ramnagar College, affiliated to Vidyasagar University, West Bengal. Formerly a UGC research fellow at Calcutta University, he has his done Ph.D on Christopher Marlowe's plays. He contributes regularly to national and international journals. Beside English literature, Dr Mahapatra has passion for Bengali literature, especially poetry.
