Figure 3: Bachelors Degree Completion Status for Students Enrolled at 4-year Institutions, 6 Years after Beginning College Did not complete bachelors degree; 14 still enrolled in a 4-year institution 52 Did not complete bachelors degree; 34 not enrolled in a 4-year institution Completed bachelors degree Source: Department of Education. Note: GAO analysis of Educations BPS 1995-96 data. Of the background characteristics we analyzed, being black or a first-generation college student was associated with lower completion rates. Students with either of these characteristics were about a third less likely to complete college as students without these characteristics. The completion rate for black students was 38 percent compared with 55 percent for both white and Asian students. As for students who had at least one parent with a bachelors degree, their rate of completion was 59 percent compared with 43 percent for students who were first-generation college students. Being a first-generation student affected completion regardless of race. For example, first-generation white...
