This is the formal report of the Committee on Reserch Libraries appointed and sponsored by the American Council of Learned Societies. The ACLS Committee was created in response to a request from the National Advisory Commission on Libraries for a study of research libraries and recommendations for their future development. The ACLS undertook this study with alacrity in view of its enduring commitment to the effective performance of the nation s research libraries and its knowledge of the manifold problems with which they are now beset. At its first meeting on March 2, 1967, the Committee drew up a plan of inquiry and assigned responsibility for each major topic to two or three if its members. Papers were then commissioned and as they were written provided a basis for discussion at succeeding meetings attendend by their authors. The Commiittee s report was then drawn from the minutes of the meetings and the papers, several of which are incorporated in it. --Frederick Burkhardt.
