Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: . . . and fixed by the surrogate was void as against public policy, inasmuch as it diminished the incentive to diligence and zeal in the administration of the trust. If the commissions of an executor which have been partially earned cannot be assigned until they have been actually ascertained and fixed by the surrogate, much less then can an agreement not to perform any service at all, for a consideration, be enforced. But we do not understand that this question is an open one in this State. In Stazmton v. Parker (19 Hun, 55) it was held that an agreement to renounce the office of executor for a consideration was void as against public policy. It is true the agreement there was made prior to the death of the testator, but that is immaterial. The principle to be applied is the same, which is, that a person who...

Reviews

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publishes this publication.
