TEACHING EFL ONLINE

Books On Demand. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 122 pages. This work explores the role of the e-moderator, taking account of the skills required and the processes involved in creating and teaching an online English as a Foreign Language (EFL) course. It also details those theories which are applicable to online learning and how they are represented through various models, thus creating a framework to assist the e-moderation process. In particular, Salmons five-stage model...
