Wipf Stock Publishers, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 422 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A Century of Catholic Mission surveys the complex and rich history and theology of Roman Catholic Mission in the one hundred years since the 1910 Edinburgh World Mission Conference. Essays written by an international team of Catholic mission scholars focus on Catholic Mission in every region of the world, summarize church teaching on mission before and after the watershed event of the Second Vatican Council, and reflect on a wide variety of theological issues. A Century of Catholic Mission is a missiological feast with the table richly spread with everything one needs to know about Catholic mission. -Gemma Tulud Cruz, Senior Lecturer, School of Theology, Australian Catholic University This book is a magisterial project, wider than the Magisterium. Stephen B Bevens has gathered and shaped an extraordinary resource for theological students, as well as for students of mission. To understand the beginning of a Catholic new era, with Pope Francis I, immerse yourself in this immense book. -The Rt Revd Dr Graham Kings, Bishop of Sherborne This book is a wonderful gift to world Christianity. The breadth of its missiology, the scope of its historical survey, and the representation of the world church among its writers mean that this work is truly catholic in its scholarship and purpose. -Dr Cathy Ross, Lecturer in Mission, Regent s Park College, University of Oxford The scope and depth of A Century of Catholic Mission is astounding. It is an essential book both for reference and as a reliable text to introduce students from all churches to this important area. I know of no other book that gives a panoramic view of world Catholicism, bringing into relief both its...
