Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tony and Mary Calley had a nine year marriage their friends and neighbors envied. They seemed like the perfect couple, living in the perfect million-dollar house with the perfect son. Tony owned a very successful investment firm and Mary was a main figure in the town s tennis and parties high- society set. To everyone that knew them, the Calleys were the symbol of wealth and the receivers of the American Dream. Yes, they had a life that most of the world would think could never become unraveled. But it did! Tony was a bigtime gambler. He couldn t hold onto the millions that came in the front door of Burns and Calley Investment. He would bet thousands, or even hundreds of thousands on a single race every day, either from his bookie and or his laptop. He had three mortgages on his house Mary knew nothing about, as he bought the house in his name only, to use as a work write-off. She believed him until her credit cards started getting rejected and their bank president contacted her about an overdraft. After confronting Tony on the shortage in their account, he told her it must be a mistake and took care of it by illegally getting a work loan without his partner s okay. While they were putting on their we re very rich show for the rest of Nashville, they were struggling to pay their bills. Mary threatened Tony with divorce and he promised to stop betting. His secretary retired and in his hunt to replace her, he ends hiring probably the world s most beautiful redhead. Soon, his financial woes become minor...
