RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 26 pages. OCLC Number: 55690780 Excerpt: . . . our respondents. The list of questions provided structure to the conversation, but allowed enough flexibility for respondents to focus on their areas of expertise. To develop the interview protocol, we reviewed MedPAC staff papers, recent articles in trade newsletters, and relevant reports from the General Accounting Office and the HHS Office of the Inspector General. These sources provided initial background about both traditional distribution channels as well as the new approaches being used. The interview questions are included as Appendix I to this report. In coordination with MedPAC, we identified individuals through a variety of means, getting names from trade associations and professional societies, references in trade newsletters, suggestions from MedPAC staff, and personal contacts. We contacted these individuals to see if they would be available to participate in these interviews. Moreover, through our initial contacts, we requested suggestions for additional contacts. We conducted 16 interviews with 27 stakeholders. Respondents were sampled from several relevant groups, including 4 oncologists, 2 health plans, 2 pharmacy benefits managers (PBMs), 3 specialty pharmacy companies, 1 wholesaler, 1 group purchasing organization, and 3 consultants. At least two members of the project team conducted each interview. One senior member of the research team led the interview, and a junior member took notes on the interview and served as backup to the lead interviewer. Whenever possible, two or more senior team members participated in the interview, one as lead and the others as backup. The lead interviewer started each conversation with a brief review of the project. On most of the interviews additional senior team members listened in and participated in the questioning. The team reviewed the interview notes and conducted informal content...
