Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Wilson Bulletin, Vol. 7: An Illustrated Quarterly Magazine Devoted to the Study of Birds in the Field Nearly six years ago the writer issued a call to members of the Wilson Ornithological Chapter of the Agassiz Association, to begin a critical study of Warbler songs (family Mniotiltidae). The object of this call was to secure a mass of notes descriptive of the songs, from man- sources, so that by comparison and tabulation a fairly accurate representation of each song could be put upon paper. It was also hoped that the diurnal as well as the seasonal song period of each species could be determined accurately, and that many other little understood phenomena might become better known. The author of the scheme of study well understood the wide lack of acquaintance among the class of lay ornithologists with the large majority of the family, and hoped that this might be a means of awakening widespread interest in our most beautiful and interesting group of birds. But the responses were few indeed, indicating that the difficulties were greater than could be overcome by the average bird student. Lack of time to devote to the swiftly passing migrants in the early days of May was undoubtedly one great obstacle in the way of many a willing worker. Failing in this plan, but anxious to bring the host of Warblers closer to those who do not already know them by their voices, the writer has undertaken the task of bringing together all printed descriptions of Warbler songs at his command, combining them with such contributions as have been made in manuscript, and his own notes representing fifteen years...
