By Aaron J. Nurick

Routledge. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. The central questions of this book are: How do the best managers behave? She does this by responding with empathy and adapting her behavior, completely meeting the child's needs in the beginning and then gradually letting go, allowing more autonomy and room for the child to add something uniquely his own to the relationship. This book is based on a primary principle: Just as there is no such thing as a perfect parent, managing people in organizations is an inherently human and fallible endeavor, mainly because managing occurs by and through human relationships. Through the words of over 1000 study respondents, GEMs are shown to be mentors and teachers, relationship builders, and models of integrity for their workers. Each of these themes is explored, making connections to...
