Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Inaugural Address Of this sum, 500 has been set apart by Mr. Glover as a nucleus for a permanent building of our own, and a representative committee has been appointed to farther the scheme and obtain donations for its fulfilment. It is therefore fitting that, at our first meeting, we should give expression to our deep obligation to our good friend Mr. Glover, and publicly acknowledge his munificent gift. It is also sincerely to be hoped that the younger generation of architects will avail themselves of these advantages to the fullest extent, and endeavour to realise Mr. Glovers aspirations for the city of his adoption. It has been hinted by some of the senior members that the main object for which the Association was formed, in 1858, has been somewhat lost sight of in the special efforts which have been made to interest and assist the younger members. Now let me remind you that the Association was formed to promote union amongst its members, the elevation of the profession of architecture, the establishment of uniformity...
